Recap of July

During the month of July our little ones had so much fun. As they explored the Prop Box putting things in and out of the baskets. We did a lot of art work using our theme colors. We even had a 4th of July parade and made so very cool hats to go with our parade.

Upcoming in August

In the month of August we will be spending time learning and painting with the color blue. Our theme will be "Open and Close", baby sign "diaper", Rhyme/Finger play "Where is Thumbkin", Song "Good Moring to You" and our shape will be oval.

July Review

We had an awesome turnout for our 4th of July Hat Parade. A big thanks to all the parents for the extra hats and all of our participants. Our splash days have been a great success, the children are have a blast! We learned about all the great things "In our USA" also about the things "Under the Ground" Along with that theme we had a dress-up day and even got a little messy as we mud painted!

In the month of July Room 5's teachers and students raised money for the Rainforest, on July 17th they received a wonderful letter from the organization thanking them for the donation of $50.75. Great Job Room 5!!!!

Review for July

This past month we celebrated the USA, learning about our flag, American heroes and fireworks. From there we traveled underground and studied caverns and caves. On the farm was our last stop. We learned about farm animals, crops and people that work on the farm. We have been forming letters with play dough, writing our names in shaving cream and practicing our alphabet in many fun ways.

Update for August

Finishing up July and into August we will travel to the islands learning how they are formed and what lives on them. From there we will journey to outer space where we will explore the planets and stars. Prewriting and cutting skills will remain an important part of our days as we begin transitioning into the new school year. As the new academic year approaches my time here comes to an end. Thank you for sharing your child with me this summer.

Review of July

Last month we had our Fourth of July parade. The children had so much fun. Thank you to the parents that joined us. July was a very busy month, we have a lot going on with field trips. We are still learning new character values and we will continue our morning group discussions.

August Update

It's August already and summer is coming to an end. This month we will be getting ready for back to school, one of our monthly theme is all about me which fits perfect. This could help them for the first day of school. The children will continue going on field trips and have class projects. Don't forget we will still have splash days on Fridays until August 15th. Please remember the children need towels, extra clothes, and water shoes. Well I would like to say I'm going to miss my group of kiddos I had to much fun being their summer teacher. Good Luck room 9 parents and kids on your new journey as Elementary Parent and the Kids becoming Kindergartners.
